

Charlie Moore
the Mad Fisherman™

Charlie Moore: Biography

Since his TV debut on NESN's Front Row sports magazine program in 1996, Charlie Moore has become one of the most recognizable outdoorsman in the U.S. as well as a Canadian celebrity – earning top show ratings on ESPN and NESN. He also has a new book -- The Mad Fisherman -- a very funny look at his world, released by St. Martin's Press in April, 2008. Charlie, along with Curt Gowdy and Ted Williams, is a member of New England Sports Hall of Fame.

Charlie's fast-paced, no-holds barred comic hosting style has re-defined outdoor television. From jumping out of airplanes to boxing with the World Heavyweight Champ to kicking footballs with Adam Vinatieri off his bass boat, you never know what Charlie will do next! He is bright, funny and has great range to his talent.

ESPN: Beat Charlie Moore

Beat Charlie Moore is in its fifth season with ESPN2 and ranks as one of the most popular outdoor shows of all time for the network. The greatest show on H2O travels to virtually every state from Texas, to South Carolina, Florida, Virginia, Oklahoma, California, Alabama and New England. The regular time slot for Beat Charlie Moore is Saturday mornings on ESPN2. It also airs on Canadian TV. Repeat airings vary by market.

NESN: Charlie Moore Outdoors

The Mad Fisherman, Charlie Moore, has been a fixture on New England Sports Network since May 1996, first as a part of the Front Row sports magazine show, and since 1999 as host of Charlie Moore Outdoors. During that time, Charlie Moore Outdoors has established itself as the most successful outdoor program in New England and made Charlie Moore a household name across the region. Charlie's unique, high-energy, and humorous hosting style combined with celebrity guests, outrageous skits, and great fishing have redefined outdoor programming. The success of Charlie Moore Outdoors earned the show a 2002 and 2006 New England Emmy Award for "Best Sports Series" and spawned two spin-off programs - Beat Charlie Moore on ESPN and Roughing It on NESN. Charlie Moore Outdoors is a NESN Original Production.

NESN: *Roughing It

Charlie hosted this special NESN series in 2005. The show followed Charlie and comedians and athletes through a series of outdoor adventures throughout the Northeast. Charlie discontinued this show to focus on his ESPN project.

NESN: NESN Outdoors

This NESN show covered the outdoors across New England and was hosted by Charlie. NESN aired six half hour episodes per year from 2001 to 2005. Charlie left the show to pursue other projects.

Charlie Moore TV

Charlie has created the first original TV series for WFN. The show, Charlie Moore TV will be fishing themed and pure entertainment. This one is not your father's fishing show! Charlie Moore TV is set to air in the Fall of 2008 on WFN and DISH Network.

Development Deals

In 2007, Charlie had signed a development deal with Paramount Pictures/20th Century Fox to create a sitcom loosely based on his life. He is currently under contract with Pilgrim Film and Television Studios to develop a hybrid reality/sitcom show.

GUESTS

Beat Charlie Moore and Charlie Moore Outdoors have hosted a wide variety of celebrities and athletes. A short list of some who have appeared:

Doug Flutie – NFL Great

Kurt Gowdy – TV Legend

Chuck Woolery – Host of many TV game shows

Adam West – TV icon Batman

Ted Nugent – Rock 'n Roll Legend

John Smoltz – Atlanta Braves

Lenny Clark - Comedian

John Havlicek – NBA Hall of Fame, Celtics all-time leading scorer

Tim Wakefield – Boston Red Sox pitcher

Kevin Millar – Boston Red Sox First Baseman

Bill Lee – Former Red Sox pitcher, “The Spaceman”

Joe Thornton – Bruins Captain and NHL all-star

Adam Vinatieri – All-Pro NFL kicker and Patriots' Super Bowl Hero

Matt Light – NE Patriots offensive Lineman

“Boston Rob” Mariano – CBS Survivor All-Star Champion

Drew Bledsoe – All-Pro NFL Quarterback

Jim Craig – 1980 Olympic Hockey Gold Medalist

Johnny Bucyk – Boston Bruins, NHL Hall of Fame

Harry Sinden – Boston Bruins President

John Ruiz – WBA Heavyweight Champion

Pat Burns – 4-time NHL Coach of the Year
Lynyrd Skynyrd – All-time classic rockers
Godsmack – Hard rock legends
Patrice Bergeron – Boston Bruins forward
Jim Calhoun – UCONN Hall of Fame Coach & 2-time National Champion
And many more....

AWARDS

Charlie Moore Outdoors has been recognized by the New England Emmy Awards numerous times.

2002 – NE Emmy Award “Best Sports Series” – Ted Nugent Show

2003 – NE Emmy Nomination “Best Sports Series” – Adam Vinatieri Show

NE Emmy Nomination “Outstanding Program Host” – Charlie Moore

2004 – NE Emmy Nomination “Outstanding Program Host – Charlie Moore

2005 – NE Emmy Nomination “Program Elements” – Charlie Moore Outdoors Open

2006 – NE Emmy Award “Best Sports Series”

PERSONAL

Charlie lives in Chester, New Hampshire, with his wife Angela, his two sons Nikolas and Anthony and his daughter Kaitlin. He was born in the Boston suburb of Lynnfield Massachusetts in 1970.

CHARITIES

Brigham’s Ice Cream, the top selling ice cream brand in New England, launched “Mad Fish Mud” in June 2007. The flavor was created by Charlie Moore under the condition that his proceeds go to benefit the AIDS/HIV programs at Children’s Hospital Boston. Mad Fish Mud is now the top selling flavor in the Boston DMA.

